

V1. Current Problems of Lexicography (2023-2024)

(2nd year/ 1st semester)

This module consists of a series of video lectures by teachers of different universities. The students are expected to analyze and evaluate the lectures on the selected topics on dictionaries and lexicographical research.

The following steps should be carried out:

- 1) Students read the pdf document containing an overview of/questions about the content of the video document.
- 2) Students watch the video at their own pace.
- 3) Students discuss the video content with the professor(s) of their home university.

For assignment details (reports, dictionary review, ...) and submission deadlines, please contact your course coordinator.
